The first group is going to be the three to seven year olds. I'll introduce each group as they come on as they're ready. So the first group is going to be the three to seven. The first song is going to be the Hammer song. The second song is going to be Jesus my Lord.

And the third song will be Seek ye first. So we'll turn this over to our singers.

If I had a war I ring it in the morning. I ring it in the evening.

I sing in the morning. I see the evening all this man. I feel danger. I sing out warning. I see sa la sam snow spreading like petals.

Then I say that you see Jesus my lord. You see Jesus my Lord.

He blame you. Take your love, open your eyes and show it to you.

I'm open up the ocean with the wild magnificent ocean. Then I say that you see Jesus my lord. You see Jesus my lord. He here blame you. Take a look.

Open your eyes, Sam.

To you shall be open up to you. Hallelu, Hallelujah.

And it's my justice and all these things shall be added unto you. I am okay, our next group is going to be the 8 to 13 year olds, and they're going to sing two songs for us. The first one is going to be Edelweiss, and the second one will be at the Cross.

Our young people, in preparing this for you tonight, will use the melody. What a beautiful melody it is, too. Edelweiss. You'll recognize it instantly. But sister Florence Taback, a very dear saint, wrote some other words to it.

Those are the words you'll hear tonight. So we want to give her credit for this, and the children were very excited. Children of young people. There are people who are young.

Let's see. Riley wants you to know that this song shows that you love God. Riley, raise your hand, please. There she is. Lovely thought.

Next thought is from Naomi, who will raise her hand. Thank you, Naomi, and her thought is. Are you in sister Florence's class? Chicago.

No wonder you love her so much. Okay. I think it's really special that Sister Florence Tabak wrote the words for it. That shows praise to God.

Peter, please raise your hand. Thank you, sir. He says you feel that God is important in the role that he does. It shows why God is good and what his job is.

Lucas, raise your hand. Thank you. I used to have hair like that. I did. Some of you may remember that.

Lucas says very appropriately. It lets you know God will always be with you, and so by committee of the young people here, they chose a verse, a scripture verse. For you. It is from Ephesians, chapter 6, verse 18.

And it says and pray in the Spirit on all occasions with all kinds of prayers and requests. With this in mind, be alert and always keep on praying for all saints.

Their second selection tonight. These are their thoughts. Riley says I owe all to you. It shows that you try every day to give your all for Jesus.

Naomi quotes from the song at the cross. Here my hope is found Hope for the kingdom. He saved my life. He died for us, and Peter said it shows what Jesus sacrifice was.

He paid the ransom, which was a big thing to do, and Lucas observed Jesus gave his life for you and washed away our sins, and there's scripture from Romans, chapter 5, verse 8. But God demonstrates his own love for us in while we were still sinners Christ died for us. Thank you for your thoughts, young people.

Sa love will leave you never they are Lord and are God bless and keep you forever Follow him until we be forever blessed are those who have let's praise him together.

May our Lord and our God to each trial. Here is love. God lives with you ever for he owns all our thankful for his love. Let Sing together.

May our Lord and our God bless and keep you forever.

It There is a place where dreams of grace all at your cross at the cross I surrender my life I bear you you I love me and I I don't want you I don't want you Jesus There's a place all the love I ever found Like a At the cross at the cross I surrender my life I ran on you, I lean on you where your love and red in my sin washed white I owe to you, I owe to you Here my hope is found Here on holy ground. Here I doubt now Here I here arms open wide Here you saved my life Here I bow down Here I bow at the cross at the cross I surrender my life I'm in all of you I'm in all of you way of love and red and my sin was white I owe all to you I owe to Jesus because the Lord has anointed me to preach good tidings to the poor. He has sent me to heal the brokenhearted. To proclaim liberty to the captives and the opening of the prison to those who are bound to proclaim that acceptable year of the Lord and the day of vengeance of our God to comfort all who mourn to console those who mourn in Zion to give them beauty for ashes the oil of joy for mourning the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness that they may be called Trees of righteousness, the planting of the Lord that he may be glorified.
