I think you'll find on Honoring Our Heavenly Father, we will open with a hymn 87 and we'll ask Sister Julia if she will play for us. Hymn 87 he leadeth me and with my destroyer is love and my Thy grace no victories won Ingestion Jesus and as we start our readings, many of these we see as precious promises that have been given to us. Our first reading is by Ryan Belous.

We have special promises in the Bible that God will guide us in our lives. As we are reminded by our opening hymn, God will lead us through any challenging times we face in our lives. Psalm 23:1-4 illustrates God's lead. God's leading the Lord is my shepherd I lack nothing he makes me lie down in green pastures he leads me beside quiet waters he refreshes my soul. He guides me along the right paths for his name's sake.

Even though I walk through the darkest valley, I will fear no evil for you are with me. Your rod and your staff, they comfort me.

Thank you, Ryan, and then we'll ask for our second reading to be by John Malinowski.

Is anything too hard for the Lord? Genesis 18:14 the Spirit of God is powerful in whatever way it is applied. As an illustration of its power, the apostle points us to our Lord Jesus and His literal death and how God's Holy Spirit raised Jesus from the dead in his resurrection. Think of the power of God and how it will be used on our behalf for the resurrection of our faithful members of the body of Christ to a spiritual resurrection and to the world of mankind for an earthly resurrection. Is anything too hard for the Lord?

Genesis 18:14 thank you John, and now we'll sing hymn 358. How great thou art how great Thou Art I love you all. The universal Lord I rain the Lord sings with me in the dreams When I look down from the mountain grandeur and hear the rose and feel the gentle bree and sings my soul, my Savior unto thee how great thou art how great Thou art and saints my soul, my Savior love to thee how great thou art, how great thou art and when I think that God his son must be gladly Mary and take me home the joy shall fill my heart there I shall bow in there and sings my soul, my Savior love to me how great Thou art, how great Thou art and saves my soul how great Thou art, how great Thou thank you dear brethren. How great is our Heavenly Father?

We've heard about his power. We sang about it and now we will sing about or we will hear about his love the Father loves you. John 16:27. What would you take my dear brother for that what that text teaches of the love of God toward us as his children. He has a love for the world as a God, the Creator.

He has the supervision of all of his creatures. God has made provision for every creature, even the sparrow. But all who have come into this loyal attitude of mind, he has love, sympathy, and even more esteem. This I think, and so do you, that God loves us very, very much, or he would have never made such wonderful provisions in the riches of his grace and in his loving kindness toward us who are in Christ Jesus.

Thank you, Will, and the final hymn that we'll sing as a group at this point is hymn 165, Love Divine. 165 Love Divine.

Your account is Love thou art Thou hast brought to us Almighty let us Lord thy free sea well in us and never, never, never more Thy death will sleep he we worthy always pleasing Lovely as I possib serve and praise thee without ceasing witnessing through thy great love it is for thy new creation Goodness let us be show us all thy great salvation Thine shall all the glory be Change from glory into glory till we see thy glorious Till we master crowns in glory lost in wonder, love and grace.

We'll now ask Brother Clean and sister Daniela if they come forward and they've prepared a song, a hymn to sing. It's called Goodness of God. Goodness of God, God I will see all the goodness of God all my life you have me faithful so you are good.

You have led me through the fire in darkness. Now you are close like no other.

I know you as a father.

I know you as a All my life you have been so, so good.

With every breath that I am able I have been faith all my life you have been so, so you.

Thank you, Brother Colleen. Thank you, Sister Daniela. We always appreciate your singing and your bringing praise and honor to the Heavenly Father, and I could sit back and listen for a while, so. But we appreciate that so much.

We're going to have a fourth reading now by Peter Goodman, and Peter, just before you start, this is just a heads up to our men's group. You're going to be up next, but we're going to have all of our attention first to Peter.

Every good and perfect gift is from above coming down from the Father of heavenly light. James 1:17. As we listen to the next hymns, remember the most precious gift ever given God's son, Jesus. Jesus gave his life as a ransom for all, and we are blessed to have the Opportunity of salvation through him.

Thank you, Peter.

Now I ask the men's group to come up and they are going to sing two hymns for us.

One is near the cross and the other is blessed assurance Satan there a precious mountain free to all the hilly tree flows from Calvary's mountain In the cross in the cross be my glory ever Till my ransom soul shall mine Rest beyond the river near the cross the trembling soul Love and mercy found me there the bright and morning star cheeks around me in the cross in the cross be my glory ever Till my ransom soul shall die Rest beyond the river Hear the cross the watch and we trust me on the river in the cross in the cross be my glory ever Till my rest of soul shall find rest beyond the river Jesus is mine O what a fort is the glory mine Heir of salvation Purchase of God Let of his spirit wash in his love this is my story this is my song Praising my Savior all the day long this is my story this is my song Praising my Savior all the day long Praise the mission Visions of rapture now burst on my side Angels descending break from above Echoes of mercy, whispers of love this is my story this is my song Praising my Savior all the day long this is my story this is my song Praising my Savior all the day long all is at rest I am my Savior Am happy and blessed Watching and waiting Looking above Filled with his goodness Lost in his love this is my story this is my song Praising my Savior all the day long this is my story this is my song Praising my Savior all the day long.

Our final reading of the Night is by James Slavich.

J Slavich - Evening Vesper

Romans 11, 33, 36. Oh, the depth of riches, the wisdom and knowledge of God. How unsearchable his judgment and his paths beyond tracing out who has known the mind of the Lord, or who has been his counsellor? Who has given to the Lord or to God that God should repay them? From him and through him, and for him are all things.

To him be the glory forever. Amen.

Amen.

Brethren, we've considered different facets of God's character in just a few readings. His love, his wisdom, his power, his judgments. We've seen the gift of His Son as a ransom for all. What a wonderful God we have. You know, there's nothing that we have done that brings us this opportunity is all by his grace, his unmerited favor toward us.

And with that in mind, we'd like to close our convention singing for the day with hymn number 37. We'll sing hymn number 37, Boundless Grace. That will be our closing hymn, and I think we'll be having songs in the night following that.

Sa sing all the song. Heart will praise Grace of all love Matchless love on the moon Grace redeemed me Hungry with Christ Precious blood sought me out Where I a stranger Water of O this days O to grace Our greater treasure in the eye comes straight to me for thy goodness like the measure Thy swine faithful are to me I will tread the way anointed from victory Go with me in the sanctuary which I see.
